

Cambra Gordon

Clothing Construction

Design, Construction, Alterations, Pattern Making

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Brigham Young University – Idaho Dance Costume Shop ■ Seamstress

- Tailored garments and costumes to fit dancers and clients.
- Sketched and drafted patterns to be presented to department heads (choir, dance, etc) for approval.
- Operation of industrial serger and sewing machines.
- Assisted clients in costume rental and returns while maintaining organization.
- Maintained a clean and well organized work environment to reduce risk of injury and increase productivity.

Freelance Work ■ Seamstress

- Men's suit pants alterations including: hem, waist and rise.
- Drafting and construction of baby blessing/christening gowns.
- Basic upholstery for cushions and pillows.
- Formal gown alterations including: letting out seams, fixing cap height, lengthening, shortening and taking in the bodice.

EDUCATION

Brigham Young University - Idaho

BS in English: Creative Writing – Graduation April, 2013.

Minor: Clothing Construction – Minor completion date July, 2012
